

The year-end financial report and annual tithing figures for the Irish Mission has been uploaded to the Irish Mission website. Significantly the report shows a 22% growth in income from the year before, making the Irish Mission the church entity within the British Union that has shown the strongest year-on-year growth in 2017.

“Some of the growth in income can be explained by a more favourable exchange rate,” said Earl Ramharacksingh, who serves as treasurer of the Adventist Church in Ireland and Northern Ireland, as well as the British Union. “But it is also a story of a significant increase in church member support of the local church.”
